Members of the Utah Association of Health Underwriters met with Utah elected officials in Washington DC on Healthcare

(Washington, DC) – Members of the Utah Association of Health Underwriters (UAHU) recently attended the National Association of Health Underwriters' (NAHU) 28th Annual Capitol Conference in Washington DC.

More than 800 health insurance agents, brokers and consultants attended the conference. Speakers included: Representative Kurt Schrader (D-OR), Representative Jackie Walorski (R-IN), Representative Billy Long (R-MO); Christine Pollack, vice president, Horizon Government Affairs; Peter V. Lee, executive director, Covered California; Representatives Josh Gottheimer (D-NJ) and Tom Reed (R-NY), co-chairs, Problem Solvers Caucus.

While attending the conference UAHU members discussed policy issues with Senators Orin Hatch and Mike Lee, and Representatives Mia Love, Rob Bishop, Chris Stewart and John Curtis, on improving market stability and enacting sensible legislation that promotes patient-centered, value-based and high-quality healthcare for American workers and their families.

“Every year, we look forward to engaging in an open discussion about healthcare reform with our legislators,” said UAHU President Craig Paulson. “We believe there is a critical need to ensure that the healthcare delivery system is solvent, accessible and efficient. NAHU’s Capitol Conference gives us the tools we need to help our clients access the coverage they deserve at a price they can afford.”

UAHU is a state chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters and represents more than 2,000 health insurance professionals through 3 local chapters across Utah. UAHU members service the health insurance needs of large and small employers as well as people seeking individual health insurance coverage.

NAHU represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Washington, DC. For more information, visit our web site at www.nahu.org.
