Utah Association of Health Underwriters Earns the NAHU Landmark Award

(Salt Lake City, UT) – The National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) this past year held its National Conference in Orland, FL.

During the conference NAHU’s President, James Stenger awarded the Utah Association of Health Underwriters the Landmark Award. This is the 5th time that the UAHU has earned this prestigious award since the Utah chapter was chartered back in 1985, and the first time the chapter has won it in back to back years.

The Landmark Award honors state chapters for outstanding achievements and excellence in service to their members, the industry and the general public.

“The UAHU has a far-reaching impact on providing for the healthcare needs of individuals, families and business in Utah. We are grateful for the leadership of the UAHU board and for their hard work and recognize them for their efforts with this well-deserved award,” said Past President Rob Sautter.

The Utah Association of Health Underwriters (UAHU) is a state chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters and represents more than 2,000 health insurance professionals through 3 local chapters across Utah. UAHU members service the health insurance needs of large and small employers as well as people seeking individual health insurance coverage.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Washington, DC. For more information, visit our web site at www.nahu.org.
