(Salt Lake City, UT) The Utah Association of Health Underwriters (UAHU) will be holding its annual Sales Congress on Wednesday, May 17th at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center located at 1355 West 3100 South in West Valley City. In conjunction with the Sales Congress the association will also be holding its annual golf tournament at Eaglewood Golf Course on Tuesday, May 16th, the day before the event.

A tradition since 1985, the UAHU Sales Congress is designed to bring brokers together in order to address and discuss healthcare issues on a national and local level.

This year's keynote speakers will include Janet Trautwein, CEO of the National Association of Health Underwriters, Jim Dunnigan, Member of the Utah House of Representatives, Greg Poulsen, Intermountain Healthcare VP & Chief Strategy Officer, and Reid Rasmussen, Freshbenies Cofounder & CEO.

“We look forward to this great event as an opportunity to hear from our keynote speakers and discuss important issues related to healthcare”, said UAHU president Rob Sautter. “Considering the renewed discussion regarding the future of the Affordable Care Act this event will help provide some prospective and address healthcare reform issues which have an impact on businesses and families in the state of Utah”.
